

POKER MACHINES

Family First believes that the increase in Poker Machine numbers and their relocation to local hotels and gaming rooms has been to the detriment of the community. The rise in problem gambling is a terrible consequence of the increased accessibility of poker machines. Indeed, coupled with the resulting social consequences, both the financial and social costs of increased poker machine numbers are unacceptably high.